how to do it... many of them are salesmen? my n is small, but discussions with jeff koons comes to mind- he has the eyes, is smart in a clever sort of way... but to what end- selling balloon dogs, buying nice townhomes so he can spend time with his kids- good for him, and hats off that he can do it as a living artist- few can do that.. but... we are interested in people pushing horizons on human understanding, wellness, major innovations, or even new kinds of political or business empires, no? i'm open to your ideas!!

just don't know too many in the arts world... and should know more in the music world, too....
